THE CHAOTIC CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE INTELLIGENT CONSCIOUSNESS

Today we are going to study all those disturbing topics related to our own existence.

Where do we come from? Where are we going to? What is the purpose of our existence? What do we live for? What are we here for? Why are we here?

These are really enigmatic questions that we all should solve. Above all, if we want to know something about ourselves, we have to start to SELF-EXPLORE.

The physical body is only the densest part of us. It is composed of organs, and the organs are formed by cells, and the cells by molecules, and the molecules by atoms; and if we break an atom, we liberate energy. But THE PHYSICAL BODY IS NOT EVERYTHING.

Mr. Emmanuel Kant, the philosopher of Königsberg, already said that there is a “NEXUS FORMATIVUS” for our own organism. I believe that a house without foundations will fall down to the ground; likewise, I believe firmly that an organism without a base will disintegrate, it has to finish. For an organism to exist it has to have a base; and that base is no other thing than the VITAL BODY.

The Vital Body is the seat of the organic life. Many would say: “And where is that Vital Body? What is Samael based on to speak about the Vital Body?” Well, I want to tell you that there is already in Russia a very powerful optical device. At this moment, the Vital Body is being studied with that apparatus. They are looking at it, and they have already photographed it.

Thus, I am not talking about something that cannot be seen. In these moments the Russians are submitting it to different analysis. They study the Vital Body in relation to the organic mechanic; they study it independently of the organism; in any case it is already photographed. They, of course, have baptized it; they have given it a name, they now call it “BIO PLASTIC BODY”.

The Hindus have spoken about the Vital Body since long time ago; in all times they call it “Linga Sharira”. So they have a fundament. The curious thing is that the Russian scientists think that they are the first ones who have discovered it. That's not true; the Vital Body is known by the sages of all the times, it has always been analyzed.

It has four types of Ethers: the first is the CHEMICAL ETHER, which is intimately related with the chemical processes of the organism; the second is the ETHER OF LIFE, which is precisely related to the matter of the animal reproduction; the third is the LUMINOUS ETHER, by means of which the perceptions, the calories, are possible, etc.; lastly, we have the REFLECTOR ETHER, this is the centre of the imagination and the will. That is why a Physical Body wouldn't exist without its “Vital Seat”, it is obvious.

But what is there beyond the Physical Body and its “Vital Seat”? Beyond that, we find the EGO.

And what is the Ego? It is a sum of different psychological factors, it is A MULTIPLICITY; it is a heap of people. This means that the “I” is not one “I”, but many “I's”. The “I” exists in a pluralized form.

Each one of our psychological defects is personified by some ghost, by some “I”, and since we have many defects, then we have many “I’s” . Anger is an “I”, greed is another, lust another, envy another, pride another, laziness another, gluttony another; and from here to there, there are thousands of “I’s”.

Each “I” seems like a real person: it has intellectual Centre, it has Emotional Centre and it has Motor-instinctive-Sexual Centre. Thus, many people live within a person, and this people are the “I’s”.

The most worthy that we have inside us is the psychic ESSENCE. Unfortunately, the psychic Essence is bottled among all those “I’s”, for that reason it is ASLEEEP, unconscious.

This means that all of us, the human beings are asleep, unconscious. However, people believe firmly that they are awake; and there is not true, they are not awake.

In this moment, the memories of something unusual come to mind. About 22 years ago, more or less, we lived in DF and we had our house located in the Federal colony, actually.

One of those many days, the Master Litelantes and I were in a jewellery store getting back a watch she had left to be mended, near a market that there is over there, which is called the “Gomez Market”. Suddenly, it happens something that we were not expecting: an explosion of dynamite!

Nearby, there was a deposit of clandestine dynamite, and one of those deposits exploded. The explosion was horrible; the air seemed to darken the sun; there were all around us a lot of things broken into pieces; and there is no doubt that there were too many dead bodies.

Then she told me:

– We better go back to the house. I told her:

– To go back to the house, we have to go to the corner, in the corner we have to take a bus and it would take us home, but it happens that there is danger in the corner, because there will be another explosion. She said.

– No, I want to go back...

– It would be absurd –I told her. Let us wait a little bit...

In those precise moments it rang the cars of the firemen. I told her:

– Of all those firemen that just arrived, not even one will be saved...

No sooner said than done; those “humble servers” of the humanity – because we can call like that those “smoke eaters”, brave beings that give their life for the human beings–, well, they got into the dangerous place where the deposits of dynamite were...

Some instants later, a second explosion, even more terrible than the first one, happened; a current of fatal air rose; the walls of that market seemed to fall down; all the salespersons run away and the market was left empty; the stalls there; there, they left their money, there they left everything; in that moment they not even had time to think in their money; the women with their children were escaping amid tears, screams and grief...

I told her:

– Instead of going to the house we better go to the centre of the city now, let us go toward the Zocalo.

Really, all that morning the Red Cross and Green Cross were transporting people, injured people, transporting a lot of dead bodies, etc., that was horrible...

Well, before we left to the Zocalo we could see no less than 300 cadavers laying on the floor, in that corner where we should, theoretically, take the bus to the house.

It is obvious that if we had gone to the corner –as she wanted–, we would have died because all the people that was in that corner died.

I calculate that they died around 300 onlookers that came closer to the area of the explosions. The onlookers are always the ones “who pay” in all those catastrophes. That is why I advice you not to be curious, and you will always avoid all types of dangers.

Well, what about, I say to myself, if we hadn’t had the CONSCIOUSNESS a little bit AWAKENED? Obviously, we would have died. Now, how do you explain that those brave men, the firemen, had rushed like that to the deposits of dynamite? What good does it make to be brave there? Do you know what an explosion of dynamite is? But, why did they do it?

All those firemen died; it was only found the boot of a sergeant; they disintegrated atomically; there were nobody to bury and only the boot of a sergeant was found.

There is no doubt that they were asleep because that cannot be explained in another way. If their Consciousness had been awakened, they would never have entered in the deposits of dynamite; that is only done by people who is asleep.

Of course, justifications come: “No, bravery, they showed their heroism”... That is to say, we look for the way to wash the thing, to justify it in any manner, but the reality was that they died. That is the crude reality of the facts, and they died because their Consciousness was asleep.

Another of those many days, I walked somewhere around by the streets of Mexico City, suddenly I arrived to a corner. I was around there when I saw an employee of the “Light and Force” that came by the sidewalk and when he arrived to the corner, with great astonishment I see that a piece of cornice comes off from an old building, and it fell down on him, exactly on the head of the poor man. Of course, he died there...

For a moment it was seen that he moved his hands and feet, but my concept was that he surely died because I saw that enormous rock to come off and fell exactly on his head. His partners put him in a car and they took him...

Well, this is not strange: that a rock falls on the head of a man and that it kills him, well, it was an accident, and it cannot shock us, just an accident, and really that is not to shock anybody. The shocking thing was not it, the shocking thing was the bunch of people that gathered in the place of the accident and they were exactly under the cornice, like that, looking upwards to the place where the pieces of rock were coming off. That was what shocked me, not the accident, because it could happen to anybody, but to be there, under the cornice...

That is a thing of people that is asleep. I assure you that an awakened person doesn’t do that. I was perplexed at that moment, not for the accident but for the state of unconsciousness in what people are. That cannot be of awakened people. Fortunately, it didn’t come off any other piece, if it had, it would have killed some people there...

Let us see, for example how people react to the impacts, to what already has happened; however, never in life I see you preventing things, but always after: when something has already happened to you, then you hurry, you rush to see what to do, how to solve it; now, what for? All has already happened now. Why do this happen to you? Because you are asleep.

Many times in the infinite Cosmos there is a COLLISION OF WORLDS – because sometimes the worlds crash. This can be seen with telescopes. Just the way our car crash, thus the worlds in the space sometimes receive their “blows”. They are catastrophes, but awful catastrophes. Calculate a crash of worlds, how horrible it will be...

And then that force comes here, to our Earth, and... what do earthlings do? They receive it and immediately enter into activity: wars are declared, they go to the battle fields; they hoist mottos: “for the democracy, for the peace, for I don’t know what, for this or that”...

But they ignore what pushed them to go to war: It was the vibration of a collision of worlds in the space that touched them, they were touched by that force. Then they are millions of human beings against millions in the battle fields: they are fighting, but they don’t know why, they are asleep. If they were awake, it is obvious that they wouldn’t be there.

Therefore, the human Consciousness is asleep. That is why it is NECESSARY TO AWAKEN; of course it is necessary to come out from that state of unconsciousness in which we are.

If you had the Consciousness awakened, you would be able to see, hear, touch the great Mysteries of Life and Death, but you are asleep... When were you born?

Disciple. The question is indiscreet, isn’t it?...

Master: No, I don’t see you with the white hair yet, so it is not indiscreet.

D. 1952.

M. 1952, well, you were born in the 52. In the 50 I published the first edition of the “Perfect Matrimony”, I wrote that book. What did you do in 1952? Where were you?

D.

M. Well, try to solve that enigma here before this auditorium. Where were you in the year 1950? I published the book “The Perfect Matrimony”, first edition in 1950, what did you do in that year? Where were you? Where you somewhere, in any place?

D. Well, I don’t remember.

M. Well, that is the state of all the humanity. I ask you: Where were you 100 years ago? Could any of you tell me?

There are mathematical methods by which... ..mathematical methods by means of which one is able to track something about his own life. I am going to show you something, it is a curiosity that I am going to show you tonight. Well, for example, let us see here, one brother who gives me his date of birth. Do you remember what year were you born?

M. You were born in 1918; in comparison with me you are a young, I was born much before, but in any case we are going to take you into account.

1 and 9: 10; see the addition that we are going to do, it is very nice: 1+9+1+8, what amount does it sum?

D. 19.

M. 19, right? Then, 19. Well, and 1+9=10; in last synthesis, 1+0 gives 1, it gives us the arcanum 1 of Tarot: it is the man of initiative, public man, etc., etc., and if this result were obtained after asking about your work, then, go ahead.

But, the thing doesn't stop there, we add up the same amount of 1918 like this: I mean, I write the number 1918 under this amount and I add it up:

$$\begin{array}{r}
 1918 \\

8 and 1: 9, and 9: 18, and 1: 19, and 8: 27, we have two and 1: 3; 9 is 9; and 1 is 1: 1937. He had an important change in his life; he had an important event in his life, in 1937 a change began. Now you have to remember that 1937.

1+9+3+7: 1 and 9 is 10, and 10, and 3: 13, and 7: 20, which represents the "Resurrection of the Dead": The beginning, the start of something new in your life; the beginning or start, resurgence, in his life something new began, his existence began in a new way, which means, it resurged as if he had risen, as if he had initiated and had begun in a different way; this was in the 37.

But we can go on adding up like this:

 1937 \\

7 and 1: 8, and 9:17, and 3: 20, and 7: 27; we have 2, and 3 are 5; 9 is 9; 1 is 1: 1957.

In 1957 there is another aspect of his life, in the 57. 1 and 9: 10 and 5: 15 and 7: 22; 2+2 are 4: He already put a foundation... ..in 1957.

Now the important thing is that you try to remember that, those aspects, because it is necessary to have a good memory in order to remember exactly what was done in that year: 1957.

I am teaching you this procedure –mathematical– by which you are able to know much about your lives and about your life in the present.

1957 we can put it like this and then we add it like this:

 1957 \\

In this case we would have the following: 7 and 1: 8 and 9: 17 and 5: 22 and 7: 29; we have two, and 5: 7; 9 is 9; and 1 is 1: 1979. He has another very important aspect for his life in the 79.

1+9+7+9: 1 and 9: 10, and 7: 17 and 9: 26; 2 and 6: 8. 8 is Job's number: Tests and sufferings in 1979. Tests and sufferings: The Arcanum 8 of Tarot.

One can track his life in this way. You already saw how... he could track his life; it is the most one can do: track our life through mathematics towards the future; that is clear. Therefore, OUR LIFE, then, is DEVELOPED MATHEMATECALLY.

Well, in all this I want to tell you the following: "DEATH in itself is a subtraction of fractions" and that is all. For example, if we do a subtraction of fractions, what is left there? Let's see...

D. The Values...

M: The Values.... What would be the result?

D: Minus 1/4...

M: Of course, minus 1/4, then it is left, what? The Values, isn't it?

The VALUES represent, truly, really, the human being; the "I" is just an addition of Values and that's all. That is to say, within us there is an addition of Values; we are MATHEMATICAL POINTS in the space that serve as vehicle to certain sums of values.

Which ones are those Values? Well, all the psychological elements that we carry inside us, the "I's" that I am talking about; those are the Values. We carry GOOD "I's" and BAD "I's" as well; and we carry useful "I's" and useless "I's" also.

"Death is a subtraction of fractions; once the mathematical operation is finished, the only thing that continues are the Values". We are mathematical points in the space that serve as vehicle to certain sums of Values, that is obvious.

Those Values continue after death, they are swallowed by the Eternity. In the Eternity those Values attract and repel one another according to the LAW OF UNIVERSAL MAGNETIZATION.

But those Values, later on they are expelled by the Eternity, they are vomited, and then, they return, they come back, they develop new cells with their perceptions and sensations; they come back to the world and they become "Mr. so and so" or in Mrs. or Miss so and so". That is the crude reality on the LAW OF THE ETERNAL RETURN of all things. That is a Universal Law.

The stars return to the starting original point after many thousands of years; the atoms, within molecules, return to their original starting points; this way, we return as well; the one who dies returns, you can be sure that he returns. That is the reason why somewhere in the Solomon's chants or in the Salomon's psalms it says: "I will pick you up in your body"..., we all come back...

LIFE IS LIKE A FILM, and it is not but that, a film. Death is the return to the original starting point and the end of the film.

When one has come to the end, he rolls up his film and leaves, as the Spanish saying: "with his music to another place"; the Eternity swallows him.

But when one returns, when one comes back, when one is reincorporated, obviously one projects his film again, in the same way, one cannot project another film, but his own, just the way it is and he projects it on the screen of the existence.

That means that everything repeats again just as it happened. If in the past life we had a scene of drama in a tavern, we had a fight with another person at the age of 25 years old, then, in the new existence, at the same age of 25 years old we met... an Ego that likes to fight...

For example, if you are listening to me... .. right here in Torreon city, it might not be here in this house, no, but somewhere here, in this city; we saw each other, I talked to you and you listened to me, and now we have reencountered again. This is the so called "LAW OF RECURRENCE"; if one returns, then one repeats everything again, just as it happened in the past.

Therefore, there are two Laws: The Law of the Eternal Return of all things and the Law of Recurrence by means of which everything occurs just as it happened. Thus we all come back.

Is there any person who remembers his previous lives? Do you believe that there is any? In the name of the Truth, I remember them. If I didn't remember my previous lives, frankly, I would not dare to speak to you of the Law of the Eternal Return here in this room.

Now, see that I am not charging you a cent (a penny), because anyone could lie for money, but I am not asking you, not even five cents for your attendance. Then, under what purpose could I lie to you? Obviously, there is no reason to lie. If I tell you that I remember my past lives, I say it sincerely. Under what purpose do I say it? Simply, in order to give a testimony of the Doctrine, that is obvious.

If you asked me "what was your name and where did you live?", and all those questions... well, my name was named DANIEL CORONADO; I enrolled the Revolution, I was one of the "30 Golden" of Pancho Villa. Why am I going to deny it? Well, it is true!

In that time I taught this doctrine to a lot of people, I taught it in a little gross way, but I taught it; in a more rudimentary way, but I taught it; and now I am teaching it again; that is not a crime.

If you ask me how the existence was, no problem! I remember completely all the details, a very long life that if I narrate it to you we can spend the whole night talking about it... you know that one, in life, passes through many incidents, through many adventures, so to narrate one life can take a long time.

In any case, I certainly was with Villa, with the "Division of the North", that is the most important thing; and I left the body at will, and I entered in that body at will. Why? Because I am awake; and I can do that. I will only narrate the end and the beginning of that existence; because it would be very long to narrate the whole life. Besides, you didn't come here to hear of other people's lives.

In any case, I want to tell you that, certainly, during the last instants in the channel of death, a doctor arrives to the place –of course– where I was living: a dirty house –it was in Mexico City. He arrives and takes my pulse, he sits down on a chair –the only one that existed in that horrible house–; moves the head saying: "This case is lost".

He leaves because there was nothing else to be done. I had a serious peritonitis and they didn't have so effective remedies as there are now to combat a serious peritonitis, I was already in the last instant...

Then, when the doctor left the poor woman who accompanied me, and she lets out some pain screams, she implores Saint Peter and Saint Paul and to all the Saints, but it was useless because it was my hour to disincarnate.

Somebody grabs me by the waist. I see myself again, it is the ANGEL OF DEATH. He cuts the Silver Cord with his sickle, and there I remain without body, disincarnated, in the astral world. End of a long and hard life...

Beginning of the actual life: one of the great Masters of the Law of Karma – those Masters who rule the destiny of men, and live in the Superior Worlds–, gets close to me and tells me:

- Master Samael Aun Weor, everything is ready, follow me. I answered:
- Very well, Venerable Master, I will follow you.

That Adept goes to a certain house and I go behind him. He enters in an old house with a wide and paved vestibule, he crosses a patio, he arrives to a small living room and lastly, he enters in a bedroom. I listen there screams of pain of a woman that suffers childbirth pains; I observe myself and I see that a very subtle thread connects me to that creature that is about to be born –it is the Silver Cord which Mr. Martes Lobsang Rampa spoke so much about . In the East that cord is called "Antakarana", and it is said that it has seven different aspects...

The instant in which the creature is born, the moments in which he makes the first breathing in, it happened to me what happens to a man that is sleeping and somebody else arrives and touches him, and he wakes up instantly.

Of course, the moment in which that creature makes the first breathing, I feel pulled instantly, attracted towards the interior of that body. In that small body of the newborn child, then, I was so surprised that I was not able but to make some shouts and some cries.

They fix me the umbilical cord; they put me next to my earthly mother; I see a giant that gets closer to me; he looks and smiles. Of course, I had a small body and that giant, well, he was my father, but I saw him gigantic –I was tiny and I saw him so giant–; that giant smiled at me sweetly, the giant seemed nice, he didn't bother me at all.

That way, consciously, I remain inside the body; that body grew little by little; at the age of 11 months I say: "Well, it is already time to start walking a little bit", I put my hands like this, I take some steps with the intention of standing for the first time with the new body and I achieved it...

I continued to grow, but consciously, without forgetting my last existence, without forgetting my relatives, without forgetting anybody.

I only wait for the moment in which the body is ready enough for me to leave the house, to leave those people that gave me my body. I do the first rehearsal at eight years old, but I notice that it is not possible, that I was not still enough mature to live on my own; I had to return home because there is not any other way...

A little bit later on, when I already could understand that I was able enough to sustain myself, "I left", "good-bye", I told them: "good-bye" and so here I am with you.

Total, I never lost the Consciousness, no; I didn't because already in very old existences I had worked in the awakening of the Consciousness, I had already worked in that aspect, and that is what allows me to tell you where I was before being born, and also to know where I am going to after death.

But if I had not worked on myself, if I had not attained the awakening of the consciousness, I would be completely unconscious, like the rest of the people.

Thus, for one to know where one comes from; where one goes to, what is his inner name and all this, well, there is nothing to do but TO AWAKEN THE CONSCIOUSNESS.

In this moment, I am remembering about that writer called "Vargas Vila". He arrived to Palmas, and over there, a journalist got near him and asked:

– Your lordship, where do you come from and where are you going to? What is your name and how are you? Then Vargas Vila, who was tremendous in the field of the intellect, answered:

– I come from the East and I go to the South, my name is Vargas and I am very well.

Well, it is a nice anecdote of that writer called "Vargas Vila"...

In any case, I want to tell you that it is possible to awaken the Consciousness; I am going to tell you how: Well, BY DISINTEGRATING OUR OWN DEFECTS of psychological type.

However, how does one do to disintegrate them? Well, first of all, one has to DISCOVER THEM because we have defects that we ignore; one has to discover them to be able to work on them. And where one will discover them? Well, by being in relation with people, on the street, in the public place, in the market, in the field, in the office.

It is clear that if one is alert and vigilant like the watchman in times of war, one discovers his defects because the hidden defects appear spontaneously, naturally, when least expected.

If one is alert, one sees them. Once a defect is discovered, it should be worked, that is to say, I should be STUDIED, ANALYZED, UNDERSTOOD in all the Levels of the Mind.

When one has understood that one has, for example, the defect of anger, well, then, what to do? There is nothing to do but to CONCENTRATE ON HIS DIVINE MOTHER KUNDALINI; BEG HER, REQUEST HER TO ELIMINATE, to disintegrate THAT DEFECT, and she will disintegrate it.

And the Consciousness that is bottled inside it will be liberated. And if one disintegrates all the defects, the whole Consciousness remains awakened. And one being perfectly awakened is able to remember his previous lives; one can penetrate the mysteries, one is able to see what has existed a million years ago, etc., but when one is asleep, one can't.

And who is the Divine Mother Kundalini? Frankly, I tell you: She is a variant of our own Being, but derived; she is a part of ourselves, so to speak, she is something that we all have inside us, all of us, everybody.

If we concentrate in that part, in the Divine Mother Kundalini –also she can be called "Stella Maris" or "the Virgin of the Sea"–, she will disintegrate, will smash the "I's", those ones that personify our defects.

The interesting thing is to work daily until there remains not even one, not even a single defect. Whoever achieves it, he will be awake. He who REMAINS AWAKE can change the body at will. I, for example, I can leave this body and enter into another body at will. Why? Because my Consciousness woke up. I worked very hard during ancient Eternities to be able to achieve the awakening of the Consciousness; and that is an enormous advantage. To awaken the Consciousness, to be awake, to know where one comes from, to know where one goes to; what there is before the birth; what there is beyond death.

And what happens when one is awake? It is a little bit hard what I am going to tell you. Get ready, it is an atomic bomb! When one truly awakens, one realizes that our fellow men whom we consider to be "normal people", well, one realizes that they are not normal, but they are AB-NOR-MAL.

But that happens only if one awakens. When one is asleep, one believes that one is "normal" and that the other ones who surround us are "normal", right. But when one awakens, one realizes with pain that one lives in a mental asylum, that everybody is very "mentally sick". But while one is also crazy, one believes that one is "healthy"; that is the curious thing of the case.

See something very interesting. In the "House of Orates" –that is the way they call a mental house– it happens that all those sick people who are there, they think they are "sane", they believe they are "sane". When a mental sick person admits that he is mentally sick, it is an unequivocal sign that he is healing.

Usually, he thinks that he is healthy. Then the doctors when they notice a lunatic that already realizes that he is crazy, that he is mentally sick, then the doctors already begin to look happily at that fellow, because that patient soon will be ready to get out of sanatorium.

And when he already definitely says: "Yes, indeed I am sick, I was sick, wasn't I? I was mentally sick"..., then the doctors make him his psychiatric exams in order to see how he is, to see how much improvement he has obtained.

And when he already accepts really that he was totally mentally ill and so on; and he answers to the questions with good sense, well, they send him to his house. There is nothing else to do with him.

Well, something similar happens with an individual when he wants to awaken: It happens that when somebody admits that he is asleep and that he has an abnormal psyche, it is a certain signal that he is ready to awaken, that is for sure, he is ready to awaken.

But while somebody says: "No, I am awake and I am a sane person", well, poor one, he is sick. This is the crude reality of the facts. But, as I tell you: one only realizes of this when one is already awake.

Now I will explain you some phenomena: Thinking here aloud, to myself, I am aware of some, let's say, interstellar phenomena that are constantly happening.

Many times the EXTRATERRESTRIALS take any earthling, they take him with the purpose of studying him in the laboratory of their spaceships. I know a concrete case OF A MAN WHO WAS IN VENUS. (Poor man, between quotations, his wife thought that he was completely crazy, she abandoned him and went away with the kids and everything, and the poor man was left alone, a true problem. She still believes that he is completely crazy. Well, he doesn't, he works as a mechanic; he has to do the things in an exact way, otherwise he would fail as mechanic, wouldn't he? He is a mechanic). Well, that man was truly taken in a cosmic ship to Venus, and this was completely proved.

He explained where he was taken by the Ship. The scientists of the Phillips company went to that place and they took earth samples and grass samples, and plants; they examined all that in the laboratories and it was found in that place an atomic disorder, out of the normality. It was proven that the report that the man had given was exact.

But the first thing that they did with him was to put him in a laboratory of the Spaceship in order to study him, and they studied him deeply.

Later, they took him to Venus and he was in Venus for five days. That man knew the powerful VENUSIAN CIVILIZATION. He says for example that the sidewalks there are not static as ours here, but rather they are in movement so that people gets on the sidewalk, people walk, and at the same time they are walking, the sidewalk is moving, that is to say, they are like bands that move and that is how they are transported quickly from one place to another.

The dining rooms are wonderful. That people is feed especially of fruits and fish and they prepare all the foods based on fruits and fish.

He knew the library: their libraries are very different to ours, but splendid as well.

He knew the sea. They have organized the fishing in the sea; so they don't sacrifice the fish like that just to sacrifice them, but only strictly the ones they need for their food, and those fish, they select them. They take much care of the marine life.

He knew the interior of other Ships, Nurse-Ships, etc. He knew the Venus inhabitants who are about one meter high; they have wavy silver hair, falling on their shoulders; the vestment of the space suits have a boots that are part of the whole vestment.

He also found there two earthlings that had been taken there; they were natives from France. They lived happy working in a factory in Venus –because the Venusians have factories, they manufacture all that they need for their lives.

Each Venusian works two hours a day and in exchange they have food, they have clothes that the government gives to them, they have housing, they have everything, transportation, all that they need, so the money is not necessary there, they don't use it, they not even know it. Fraternity reigns among all of them.

He says that there was something that seemed to him a little hard, but at the same time intelligent: It is that when a child is born he is very well assisted, but later on, that child is taken by the government and they educate him, they raise him in a special city for children, and the parents don't know about the child who was born, never again.

We found it a little bit cruel because, here in the earth, parents have their children and they take care of them, not in Venus. They raise them in a city that there is for children, they educate them according to the government's norms and they educate them according to their profession; and when they are already real men or real woman, well they put them in the environment where they belong, in the position where they should work, etc.

Well, this man gives us all that information. They brought him back and he wrote a book that he called "I was in the planet Venus".

In any case, it calls our attention that the first thing that they did with him was to examine him, to study him in the laboratory of the Spaceship.

And the same has happened to many other earthlings that have taken – according to the reports that they have given when they have returned to the earth–, the first thing that they do is TO STUDY THEM IN THE LABORATORY.

Why? I am going to tell you why: The earthlings, because they have the PSYCHE, as I said, ABNORMAL, they don't realize that they are abnormal, but the inhabitants from other worlds who are not abnormal, who indeed are truly, truly sane, they are surprised by this abnormal psyche of the earthlings, and in fact, they took them to see what is going on.

And they study them in the interior of their laboratories in order to discover what is happening to the earthlings, to discover why we are so strange people, with a so strange psyche; people who destroy each other from time to time.

Because there is not doubt that, for example, when the population has reached the maximum, when we are already about to swallow each other, then Nature intervenes with the pests and with the wars, or with both things at the same time, that is obvious.

Well, by the way, in these times, what else can we await? PESTS AND WARS, why? Because there is a demographic explosion; the human population cannot keep on increasing indefinitely, without the nature doing something. There are Laws! And Nature stops it with the pest or with the war, and that is how it balances the population.

So, truly, in fact, the human being's psyche has drawn very much the attention of the inhabitants of other worlds, and for that reason they have been devoted in the last times to visit the earth so much and to study the earthlings to see what is going on. They are planning to give some help to the earth, there is not doubt that they will do it, and they will give us that help in the most important moment...

Unfortunately, I say, this psyche is abnormal, but when we disintegrate the Ego, the Consciousness awakens, and the psyche becomes normal. Then, and only then, we can realize that we are in a mental house, or that we are living in a mental house, not before, it is not possible.

It is worthwhile then, to work for the AWAKENING OF THE CONSCIOUSNESS, this is indispensable. Now, I find very hard in the Law of Recurrence the fact of coming back and repeating the same things again and again in each life...

Therefore, if a woman abandons her husband in the last existence and she left him for another guy, in the new existence the thing repeats again, and she abandons him again, and she goes with the other guy. That is very serious.

What to do once and for all in order to finish, TO STOP REPEATING always the same COMEDIES, the same DRAMAS, and the same TRAGEDIES, How do we stop that?

Well, you know that comedy cannot be played without actors; and you know that a drama cannot be played without actors; the actors are necessary so that there are dramas; and you know that the tragedies cannot be played without actors, either. Then if we want to avoid the repetition of the same things, there is nothing to do but to PUT AND END TO THE ACTORS. Who are the actors? Well, the "I's" that we carry in our interior.

Let us see this case: the woman who went away with another guy and left the poor man ruined –an act of adultery, of course, we can call it like that, and of course that is the name—. In the new existence she comes back and she reenounters with her man, and for sure that the same drama is going to be repeated; soon the third party will appear. What to do in order to stop repeating the same?

Well, it would be necessary to put an end to the "I" of adultery, to disintegrate it, to reduce it to dust; it would be necessary to meditate on it, to concentrate on the particular Cosmic Mother, to beg her to reduce it to ashes. By doing so, there is no longer adultery.

And if the guy appears, there is no problem because she already doesn't feel like committing adultery; and the repetition stops there.

Let us suppose that a man, in the last existence, fought with another one in a tavern at the age of 30 years old. What to do in order to avoid the repetition of that issue again? Well, to disintegrate the “I” of the anger. If he reduces it to dust, the repetition becomes impossible in this case.

Let us suppose that a man had very serious problems because of any quarrel in the last existence, what to do in order to avoid the repetition of that quarrel again? Well, it would be necessary to disintegrate the “I’s” of selfishness, and that quarrel will not be able to exist.

We are really machines moved by forces that we ignore. When a creature is born, the first thing that enters into the creature is the Essence, the psychic part, a 3% of it, which is the only free percentage, because the other 97% is bottled among the “I’s”. Nevertheless, the free part impregnates the fecundated egg, and stays into the creature's body. Therefore, in a newborn child there is a 3% of free Consciousness, and that 3% is self-conscious.

How does a newborn child look at us? A newborn child sees adults as you see the drunken men on the streets, that is how a newborn child looks at you; he is awake because the 3% of awoken Conscience is inside him, and the “I’s” still haven’t been able to enter in his body; then he sees the adults with pity or with horror.

And the adults think that the newborn child is not aware of anything, they think that he is unconscious: “Poor little child, we have to take care of him”..., and it is him who is realizing the state in which adults are, because he is awake, he sometimes looks at us with pity and other times with horror. But the newborn baby has the PSYCHOLOGICAL SENSE opened, and that sense remains opened in the “little crown of the head” located in this part.... because the personality is not formed yet. The personality is formed during the first seven years, and it is strengthened along the time and the experiences, that is when the Personality is already forged...
