Distinguished Gnostic brothers, I address all of you with immense love. The instant has arrived in which we should be concerned for Self-Knowledge. It is indispensable to know who we are, from where we came, to where we are going and what is the objective of our existence; for what do we exist, why do we exist?

Certainly and in the name of truth I should say that the human being does not know himself.

It's clear that he needs Self-Knowledge and this has a profound significance.

Before everything we should develop the capacity of psychological Self-Observation, in relation with our friends, in the streets or in our house, or at work or in the countryside, etc. The defects that we carry concealed flourish spontaneously, and if we are alert and vigilant like a watchman in time of war, then we will see them. Defect that's discovered should be worked in all the levels of the mind. That is how we will eliminate them. Unquestionably, each defect is by itself a real problem. To comprehend them is fundamental, but that is not all. After having understood an "I" it becomes necessary to annihilate it.

The mind by itself cannot fundamentally alter any defect. It can pass it from one level to another, hide it from itself or from others, yet it will never be able, in reality, in truth, alter it radically. However, in our interior there exists a power that is superior to the mind. I want to refer in an emphatic manner to Devi Kundalini Shakti. That power is symbolized by all the religions of the world, it is Tonantzin, it is Isis, it is Adonia, Rea, Cibeles, Maria, Mara, etc...

We in truth, my beloved brothers, should appeal to that transcendental power, if we want to truly disintegrate the defect that we have comprehended integrally and in all of the levels of the mind. When one implores Devi Kundalini Shakti, to one's own Divine Cosmic Mother, who is particular, individual, she helps; she naturally comes to your aid. Devi Kundalini can disintegrate which ever psychological defect, previously comprehended. That is the obvious path to follow. If all of you, my beloved brothers, follow this advice, you will be able to disintegrate the animal ego, you will be able to reduce it to ashes, you will be able to convert it to cosmic dust.

Each time that we eliminate a psychological defect, we liberate Essence, Consciousness. By that path, by that course we arrive at the complete awakening. When the animal ego has been absolutely reduced to dust, the consciousness has awakened in a one hundred percent.

We should awaken cost what it may cost! It results lamentable that the intellectual animal mistakenly called “Man” has the consciousness asleep. It is certain and in all truth that of one million phenomena that occur in our surroundings, the intellectual animal only perceives a millionth of a part. This is sad, but it is the truth. The people live with their consciousness asleep, they look like sleepwalkers, they work in a state of unconsciousness, they drive cars in a state of total unconsciousness. That is the “causa causorum” for which the human being does not know the mysteries of life and death.

If the human being was awake he would know himself and the universe. He would know all that is, all that has been and all that will be. He would know himself profoundly and he would know his previous existences. He would be prepared to explore not only in the world of physical science but also the superior dimensions of nature and the Cosmos. He could evidence in a clear and precise way that the mechanics of nature could not exist without mechanics, that the engineering of nature could not exist without engineers. To say this is one thing, but to have consciousness of it is another completely different thing.

When one awakens, one knows for one’s self that behind every physical phenomena, chemical and biological, etc., there exist intelligent principles that materialistic science radically ignores. The mechanics of the Universe are not possible without mechanics, it is not possible I repeat, that there could exist order in a molecule without in an intelligent principle to put the order in it.

That about blind cells, unconscious, in the style of a Haeckel, becoming ordered, adjusting themselves, structuring themselves in the organs to form them, is completely absurd. More over humanity walks blindly, and forgets the intelligent principles, it does not know them and cannot know them, because the reasoning that is purely sensual knows nothing about the Real, about that that hides behind all phenomena, about these directing principles that are capable of organizing a molecule in a mathematical and geometrical form.

It is needed to awake, it is needed that each one of the brothers, become conscious of his own self; when someone becomes conscious of his own self, they become conscious of others as well and of the Universe in general. So therefore, to dissolve the ego is fundamental; to dissolve the ego is the base, to dissolve the ego is the indispensable. Inveretial Peace!
